

Sensors and Materials* 30th Anniversary Paper Award

Last year, we celebrated the 30th Anniversary of Sensors and Materials. We have examined all the review comments sent by the reviewers as well as the evaluations sent from Editors and Guest Editors. After careful consideration, the following five papers won the Sensors and Materials 30th Anniversary Paper Award.

● Gold ●

Title: Functionality and Performance of the Subretinal Implant Chip Alpha AMS

Authors: Renate Daschner, Albrecht Rothermel, Ralf Rudolf, Sandra Rudolf, and Alfred Stett

<https://doi.org/10.18494/SAM.2018.1726>

Vol. 30, No. 2 (Special issue: Guest editor, Prof. Ohta)

Title: CMOS-MEMS Resonators and Oscillators: A Review

Authors: Chao-Yu Chen, Ming-Huang Li, and Sheng-Shian Li

<https://doi.org/10.18494/SAM.2018.1857>

Vol. 30, No. 4(1) (Special issue: Guest editor, Prof. Esashi)

● Silver ●

Title: Disposable Na⁺-ion-sensing Device for Research on Salt-tolerant Plants

Authors: Md. Abunasar Miah and Hiroaki Suzuki

<https://doi.org/10.18494/SAM.2018.1641>

Vol. 30, No. 1

● Bronze ●

Title: Improved Hairpin Resonator for Microfluidic Sensing

Authors: Chia-Feng Liu, Ming-Kun Chen, Min-Haw Wang, and Ling-Sheng Jang

<https://doi.org/10.18494/SAM.2018.1801>

Vol. 30, No.5(1)

Title: Preparation of Novel Cystine-multiwalled Carbon Nanotubes-graphene Oxide-glassy Carbon Electrode and Electrochemical Detection of Riboflavin and Dopamine

Authors: Jun-li Zhang and Ning Zhang

<https://doi.org/10.18494/SAM.2018.1970>

Vol. 30, No. 12(1)
